

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

News is scarce to-day but the EVENING BULLETIN has got what there is of it.

There are numerous applicants for the license of the saloon known as the "Bay Horse."

The wholesale department of Lewis & Company is receiving its customary spring cleaning.

A Japanese merchant bid $1150 for the stock and fixtures of the Palace candy store. He didn't get it.

The people who attend the Wednesday evening prayer meetings at Central Union Church complain that the music at the battalion drill disturbs them.

The brick and stone work of the new Water Works building is up to the ledge of the windows. When completed it will be an ornament to that section of the city.

The Geo. W. DeLong Post, G. A. R., will hold jubilee service in the Central Union Church on Sunday evening. Rev. Douglas P. Birnie will deliver the sermon.

Mr. Joseph Pritchard has tendered his resignation to the Mutual Telephone Co. Mr. Pritchard will take charge of the Kau division of the Kona-Kau Telephone Company.

The BULLETIN acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to attend the joint celebration of the Sons of St. George and the Scottish Thistle Club to-morrow evening, at Independent hall.

The numerous visitors to the new volcano nearly carried away bodily the asphalt pavement, or whatever it may be termed, on the new wharf at the foot of Nuuanu street. The sun's rays melted it sufficiently to-day to allow of its sticking to the shoes of everyone who wore them.

The stock and fixtures of the Palace candy store were bought at auction this morning by Henry Johnson, proprietor of Scharf's stationery store. It is understood that the stock of the stationery store will be removed into the candy store and the two places combined. Mr. Ramsay will manage the candy department.

THE SUPREME COURT

Remands "Prince Cupid" for Another Week.

At 10 o'clock this morning the Supreme Court opened the extra session, and Jailer Low appeared in court with the body of Jonah Kalaniana'ole sitting beside him in obedience to a writ of habeas corpus. The Court consisted only of Chief Justice Judd and his Associate Justice Frear, Justice Bickerton being unavoidably absent. The government was represented by General Hartwell and Lorrin Thurston, while Judge Whiting, Attorney Kinney and others looked on.

"Prince Cupid" looked as handsome as usual, although he has suffered some months of imprisonment which he swears is illegal, and Jailer Low kept him in sight during the whole proceedings.

Bailiff McGurn on the order of the Court announced that it was ready for business, and General Hartwell immediately asked for a postponement for one week in the habeas corpus case of "Cupid."

Mr. Neumann consenting thereto the request was granted.

Mr. Neumann's next proposition was to ask that his client be admitted to bail, pending the hearing of the present case. Some thirty-five minutes were occupied in hearing the arguments adduced by General Hartwell and Minister Thurston on behalf of the government and Paul Neumann, Esq., for "Prince Cupid," as to whether the latter should be admitted to bail or not, pending the hearing to be had on his cause on Friday, May 31st, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The argument had before the Court, in which Minister Thurston had the last say, resulted in "Cupid" being remanded to the custody of Jailer Low until May 31st, and, as Mr. Low remarked when he put him into his brake, "I am sorry for you, prince, but I can't help it."

ABOUT FINANCE.

Extracts from the Report of the Minister of Finance.

The EVENING BULLETIN is indebted to Registrar Ashley for a copy of the report of the Minister of Finance for the nine months ending December 31, 1894.

The receipts for the period named show a decrease of a trifle over four thousand dollars and the expenditures for the same time decreased by $217,263.84. Nearly all of the reduction is in the current expenses the difference between those of 1893 being $252,786.18. In the Loan Fund Expenditures the report shows an increase of $35,522.34.

In the matter of taxes the report shows an increased assessment of about $15,000 on this island over 1893, and an increase over the amount collected of $4500, but of the $272,956.64 to be paid as taxes, there was collected up to the date of the report $41,041.56 less. The gross amount of taxes assessed in the entire group is $576,629.15, and of this there is delinquent $56,070.12.

The expenses of election of delegates and the Constitutional convention were $534.03 less than the $1500 appropriated for it, so that this amount reverts to the treasury. The expenses for the Advisory Council for the nine months were $2188.05. The appropriation for this purpose was $2500.

For maintenance of the band $13,997.04 passed out of the coffers of the government and the detective department was a luxury that cost $8,788.75 to keep up while the police department drew on the treasury and were paid $42,973.30.

The cost of teaching the young idea to shoot was $130,470.58, or a little less than double what it costs to keep them in order after they are through with their schooling.

The total value of imports during the nine months is shown to be $5,713,181.43, while the exports for the same period had a value of $9,140,704.56. The total value of specie imported was $608,700 of which $602,000 was gold.

In the Post Office department business was apparently good, judging from the fact that in the nine months nearly $37,000 worth of stamps were withdrawn for issue. The pay of postmasters for the period was $10,766.50.

If it had not been for the excellent quality of coffee produced in Kona, it is not likely that foreigners would have been induced to invest their capital in lands in that district nor would the building of a telephone line, such as the new company proposes to construct, have had an existence even on paper. It's the fact that the locality produced in a small way and in the most primitive manner an article which caught the fancy of "canoosers" in the matter of coffee; they wanted more and they were willing to pay a good price, but there were no means of getting it. Investigation demonstrated that the land would produce an unlimited quantity, but the people in the vicinity had not given the proper attention to the cultivation, you all know the result, foreign capital came in and is coming every day, and before another decade the production of coffee will be a leading industry of the islands and the machinery used in pulping, cleaning and putting it through the various processes necessary to make it marketable will come through us. And why? Because we are interested in the coffee business; we know what is wanted and we secure the very latest improvements in coffee machinery. What is good enough for one man may not be good enough for another, but our stock of implements for the coffee business is good enough for all. The industry is still in its infancy and the growers do not know themselves just what they require, but if they will communicate with us, we can give them the necessary information.

The Helen Brewer brought us what charcoal irons will be needed during the next few months and the price is just what the condition of affairs here warrants. There was a time, not many years ago, where a single charcoal iron cost $5.00. In those days it was a luxury to own one, now it is a necessity and the low price we charge for them enables every one to have one.

We've never done much in the way of Refrigerators because the town seemed to be well supplied, but the prospects for a reduction in the price of ice warrant our carrying a few to accommodate people who want a really superior article—something they may depend upon to keep their meats and vegetables in during the day and over night without spoiling. It took an Eastern man to devise something a little better than any other inventor could produce—and we sell them.

For people who live out of town and wish to maintain their own telephone lines we wish to recommend our Long Distance Telephone and Chicago Magneto bells. With these instruments a conversation may be carried on between parties at almost an unlimited distance from each other. We have all the necessary articles used in the construction of private and public lines of telephones and can supply them at the lowest rates.

Among the articles received by the Helen Brewer are Brass Pipe Fittings—Galvanized Pipe and fittings—and Genuine New Bedford Cordage. If you are interested in galvanized pipe get a quotation from us.
